

Rules and Conditions of Entry

The organisers will not be held responsible for any loss or damage or any injury whatsoever which is suffered by or to any entrant, their property or servants which may arise directly or indirectly out of or in connection with this event. It is a condition of acceptance of entry that every entrant shall indemnify the WDBA and landowners against any claim or damage, loss or injury that results directly or indirectly from any action or negligence on the part of the entrant.

The decision of the WDBA on any matter shall be final.

Protective headgear, to BSI kite mark PAS015 or BS EN1384 must be worn with harness properly adjusted and fastened.

The WDBA recommend that you wear high-visibility clothing and consider wearing a body protector.

Carry a mobile phone and have some ID on your horse, preferably on the saddle, in case you part company!

Juniors and children must be accompanied by an adult.

Horses and ponies must be aged four years or over to take part.

The WDBA reserve the right to refuse entry to any horse/pony, which in the WDBA's opinion, is unsound or in an unfit condition.

Familiarise yourself with and adhere to the latest edition of the Highway Code.

Any rider seen to be riding irresponsibly and/or failing to comply with stewards' instructions will be asked to leave.

You are responsible for controlling your horse and preventing it being involved in accidents.

The ride has access to some private land for this event only. No access is permitted at any other time.

All entry fees must accompany entry forms. Entry fees will only be refunded after the closing date on production of a vet or doctor's certificate.

You will be allocated a start time. Please be at the start five minutes before time given.

You must pass through the finish to be registered as "returned".

Dogs must be kept on leads at all times.

Horses must not be tied and left unattended and all droppings must be removed from lorry park. No haynets are to be fed to horses outside of lorries or trailers.

Note: Cameras and recording equipment are allowed at the event and by entering you are accepting that your image may be taken and used in WDBA promotional material.
